WHEN: MARCH 8TH, 2012, 6:00-8:00 PM

WHERE: RED BARN

Join us in the Red Barn for an evening of celebration as we share stories of "Women's Work". Come enjoy dinner, music by Antique TV, and good conversation! We'll hear from a panel comprised of women from a variety of fields and roles including Luz Rivera (a labor activist), LTC Tina Riddle (KY Army National Guard), Dr. Diane Pecknold (a mother and professor), and Elmer Lucille Allen (a retired chemist and social activist)

The event will feature the piece, "Revisiting the Dinner Party: A Place at the Table," created by students from the Hite Art Institute. There will also be multiple opportunities presented to give back to women in our local community and across the world.

Men are encouraged to attend!

Women can BYOG- "Bring Your Own Guy"

Men- honor a strong woman in your life! We will have a women's history trivia challenge just for you, so brush up on your trivia game.
